CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS

COL. J. T. ELLIS, JR.
WESLACO
CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS

J. T. ELLIS JR., IN RACE FOR CONGRESS

For the first time in better than a decade, a colorful, "rip-snorting" political campaign for the 15th congressional district seat in Congress is assured with a much-decorated Army colonel of the famous "zooming down" to do battle with Milton West, the present incumbent.

Colonel John T. Ellis, Jr., is the full name, and that's a full colonel, if you please. And he has a two war record that glistens with citations not only for bravery leading his men into battle, but he has a desk full of commendations for his executive and business ability in planning and carrying out some of the war's most notorious paratroop invasions, such as that in Africa and Southern France. Ellis is a native Texan, born in Reedville, Caldwell County in September, 1898, the son of Judge J. T. Ellis of that county.

Being a modest man, he doubts that a lot of people in the district have ever heard of him even though he's owned and operated an outstandingly successful business at Weslaco for a great number of years, as well as operating successful orchards and farms.

"It's hard to build political fences at home when you are overseas fighting for your country's life and I've just come back from four years' service in the war. Naturally I cannot expect to be as well known as other candidates who have been at home laying a lot of political foundations," Ellis says.

"But," he adds, "I'm going to try to cover the district and get acquainted with everyone—voter or no voter. I want the people to know me and I want to know them. A congressman should know his people and his people should know all about him. That has not happened in this district for a long time."

Colonel Ellis was not drafted for service in the past war. At the time he applied for a commission (1942) he was 43 years old and by virtue of his occupation was not subject to draft even if he had been in the draft age. His application for army service was entirely voluntary.

Having served in both world wars with distinction, Colonel Ellis has often been termed a "soldier's soldier." He enlisted originally as a buck private and rose in rank from the very bottom to a full colonel.

While Colonel Ellis wears several high medals for his daring, his leadership and his military planning of America's greatest World War II invasions, he likes to emphasize the fact that in World War I he was promoted to a first lieutenant on the field of battle—an honor much coveted by every soldier.

Colonel Ellis refused what he termed a "soft desk job" and demanded to be placed in the most dangerous section of the American Army—the paratroopers.

With America's famous paratroopers he won great honor both in the field of battle and for his executive ability. The success of the now famed airborne invasion of Southern France was attributed to Colonel Ellis (then a Lt. Col.) by an official citation with the award of the coveted Legion of Merit. The citation said, in part:

"For exceptionally meritorious conduct in the performance of outstanding services... (Ellis) demonstrated exceptional ability to grasp and solve the difficult problems associated with the planning for a large scale airborne invasion... With less than thirty-five days to complete the preparations for the airborne invasion of Southern France, he went to work without assistants and started to prepare the mass of details involved... trained officers... prepared schedules and programs for the conversion of ground units to airborne units within the extremely short period of two weeks."

"In spite of the handicaps of inadequate help, limited transportation and poor communications," the citation concluded, "he carried out the invasion preparations on schedule. The airborne invasion of Southern France was executed with exceptional success largely because of the energy, ability and devotion to duty that Lt. Col. Ellis demonstrated in every phase of his difficult duties."

Asked why he is making the race for Congress, Colonel Ellis emphatically states that "it's useless to risk all your life fighting to win a war if you don't go on and win the peace."

"Some 11,000,000 men like myself faced death and a disrupted life to win this war. Those of us lucky enough to come back home alive are determined that the people and the forces which created this war shall be put down," Colonel Ellis declares.

"Every mother and every father of every man and woman who faced death in this war want to make certain that we clean out the people and the forces that look only after selfish interests in government."

Colonel Ellis says that when he was gliding down through enemy fire in the field of battle he made up his mind that if he came out of the war alive he would come back home and devote his life to fighting "selfish interests in Washington."

"I served my people in two wars and helped win them," Colonel Ellis says. "Now I want my own people of the 15th district to let me help them win the peace that is so important to us all."

SEEKING RECRUITS FOR ARMY

Lt. Carl C. McEwen visited here Monday, April 22, in the interest of U. S. Army Recruiting. While here he explained the War Department's new policy which enables veterans who have been out of the service more than 90 days to enlist in grades commensurate with their training and experience.

"The new policy includes nearly 400 Army occupations. It authorizes the enlistment of any veteran honorably discharged on or after May 12, 1945, in one of the military occupation named, up to and including the rank held at the time of his discharge," McEwen stated.

"To take advantage of the new regulation veterans should consult their nearest U. S. Army Recruiting officer, 3rd floor, Bedell Bldg., San Antonio. Ratings will be based upon length of time spent in their particular specialty, provided it was six months or more. Grades are being offered up to staff and technical sergeant in some occupations."

"This program, however, does not rescind or supersede the Army's offer to men who have been discharged during the past three months. Any veteran, regardless of his military job, may still re-enlist and retain his former rank and receive a cash bonus, if he acts within three months after discharge. If he re-enlists within 20 days after his discharge he will receive a re-enlistment furlough up to 90 days with 5 cents per mile furlough travel pay," McEwen pointed out.

"I deem it particularly opportune, at this time, to leave a message with all high school graduates. Graduation exercises are less than six weeks off and the Army is offering all the young men graduating an opportunity of furthering their education through its college program. Any young high school graduate may enlist in the Army for three years, and at the completion of his enlistment period, roll in the college or university of his choice and receive a complete five-year college education with all expenses paid, such as matriculation fees, books, etc., besides paying him $45 per month living expenses. I urge all young men to seriously consider this offer of the government," Lt. McEwen concluded.

Lt. McEwen was accompanied by M/Sgt. Robert L. Sikes and M/Sgt. Roy E. Britt. They expect to return soon on a recruiting mission.

JIMMY DUNCAN APPOINTED TO JAPANESE LABOR DISTRIBUTION

WITH THE EIGHTH ARMY IN JAPAN (Delayed)—Pfc. James N. Duncan, 18233251, 20-year-old paratrooper, with the 11th Airborne Division on Hokkaido, has recently been appointed to the Japanese Labor Distribution at Camp Kreis, which supplies the many different organizations with carpenters, tailors, skilled laborers, and other personal services needed to carry on the daily occupation.

Duncan entered the Army at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, on July 24, 1944, later to join the Paratroopers at Fort Benning, Ga., in Nov., 1944. After completing his training in February, 1946, Duncan received his wings, and was then assigned to the 11th A/B 187th RCT, now stationed near Sapporo, on Hokkaido, Japan's northern island.

Serving in the Pacific theater, Duncan now holds the Asiatic Pacific and the Philippine Liberation ribbons with two combat stars. Along with these, he will also wear the Infantryman's Combat badge and the Occupation ribbon.

Prior to his enlistment, Duncan attended the Medina County High school, graduating in May, 1944. Sports of all types are Duncan's hobby, including hunting, fishing, and camping. He intends to enter college in preparation for a future job in Journalism.

Pfc. Duncan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Duncan, live in Hondo, Texas.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Increase Conservation as Wheat Supplies Shrink; Conservatives Top Free Japanese Elections

Released by Western Newspaper Union.
(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysis and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

Casting their ballots in Tokyo, these two women were among the unexpectedly large number of their sex who voted in first free election in Japan in decade.

FOOD: Wheat Stocks Shrink

With heavy domestic and export demands being made on the nation's shrinking wheat supply, the government mapped additional conservation measures for grain but rejected a British proposal for bread rationing by the two countries.

Current figures point up the pinch developing in wheat. Against an estimated supply of 332 million bushels, U. S. commitments for export before July 1 total 125 million bushels, the present domestic rate of consumption will take another 125 million bushels, at least 35 million bushels will be used for feed and 13 million bushels may be used for spring seed.

Use of 298 million bushels of wheat by July 1 thus would leave the U. S. with a visible supply of 35 million bushels at the beginning of the new crop year. In arriving at the current figure of 332 million bushels, agronomists added the department of agriculture's estimate of 203 million bushels on farms on April 1 with projections that elevator holdings matched last year's high mark of 129 million bushels.

In turning down Britain's bid for mutual bread rationing, Secretary of Agriculture Anderson declared that the extensive widespread production of grain in the U. S. would make control difficult. Small nations like Britain depending chiefly upon imports for their wheat can exercise more efficient check on their supplies, he said.

Relax Building Order

Farmers and workers engaged in output of essential products were made eligible for building material priorities through government relaxation of emergency housing regulations. It was also determined to provide priority assistance for the repair or alteration of existing dwellings either to maintain them or restore them to a habitable state. Builders who undertook construction of non-vet residences before March 26 may apply for priorities to complete their work.

JAPAN: Big Vote

Following the general postwar trend, Japanese voters swung to the right in the first free elections in Nippon in a decade, with the nation's conservative parties winning sufficient representation in the 466-member parliament to assure a temperate tone of legislation.

Between 60 and 68 per cent of the 40 million eligible voters turned out for the balloting, with the women appearing in unexpectedly large numbers. With nearly half the ballots in the Tokyo district cast by women, 66-year-old Mrs. Shigeyo Takeuchi and American-educated Mrs. Shizue Kato piled up big leads.

Though running far behind the conservative parties, the Communists showed surprising strength to win a number of seats. Lacking the veteran, smoothly oiled machines of the conservative forces, the Reds succeeded in commanding prominent last-minute notice with public demonstrations against Premier Shidehara and the existing regime. The Reds accused Shidehara of being reactionary and blamed him for the food shortage.

Motor Power Passes Famed Horse Cavalry

Making way for the new, the historic cavalry will be merged with the comparatively new armored force into a single "armored cavalry" arm in recognition of new developments during World War II, Sec. of War Robert P. Patterson revealed.

Personnel for the new "armored cavalry" will not be drawn solely from the cavalry but also from other branches and in the same manner as it was drawn for the armored forces.

While it was planned virtually to eliminate the horse from the army, it is contemplated that a small detachment of skilled mounted troops will be maintained to give instruction and train small units for use in rough terrain, and that pack animals will be retained for specialized work.

POLES:

Shun Homeland

Apprehensive over Russian domination of their homeland, the majority of members of the British-backed Polish army in exile are unwilling to accept an offer of repatriation, a sounding sentiment among troops in Italy revealed.

The apathy of many toward returning to their native soil arises from their imprisonment in Russia after the Red occupation of eastern Poland in 1939. Prior to being released upon the formation of the Polish liberation forces after the German attack on Russia, some served two years of sentences ranging up to 15 years.

With Russian insistence upon their return to their homeland constituting a thorny diplomatic issue, many of the Poles interviewed expressed a desire to settle in Canada or Chicago, Ill., where a million Americans of Polish descent reside.

CO-OPS:

Called Beneficial

Declaring there was substantial evidence to show that the co-operative movement has proven an effective instrument for combating monopolistic control, the house select committee on small business reported that co-ops were a healthy addition to the American economy and did not endanger other forms of business operation.

Discussing agricultural co-ops, the committee said they were originally organized to help farmers offset disadvantageous bargaining conditions which still exist. Though tax-exempt farm co-ops possess an edge over competitive business in that stock dividends and reserves are not subject to levy, the actual amounts involved are relatively small, the committee said.

In considering the imposition of a receipts tax on co-ops, the committee asserted such a levy would probably raise constitutional issues and adversely affect schools, churches, scientific organizations and many social clubs with a comparable advantage of tax exemption.

COAL STRIKE:

John L. Eloquent

Most eloquent of the nation's labor leaders, burly John L. Lewis sounded off in Shakespearean tones in pressing his efforts for coal operators' consideration of his demands for a health and welfare fund and safety program in a new contract for the United Mine Workers.

Insisting on prior discussion of these proposals in the face of the companies' determined opposition, John L. chortled: "For four weeks we have sat with you; we attended when you fixed the hour; we departed when weariness affected your pleasure. . . . When we emphasized the importance of life, you pleaded the priority of profits; when we spoke of little children in unkept surroundings, you said—look to the state! . . . You scorn the toils, the abstinence and the perils of the miner; we withhold approval of your luxurious mode of life and the nights spent in merriment. . . ."

Undaunted by John L.'s heart-wrenching rally, the coal operators blandly replied that Lewis was attempting to stall negotiations and create a national crisis that would lead to consideration of his demands.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS: Old Gives Way

As the League of Nations was officially bowing out in the shimmering marble palace in Geneva, Switzerland, French Delegate Paul-Boncour sounded a warning to the youthful United Nations that unless they agreed upon disarmament the peace machinery established in UN might come to naught.

Pointing up the collapse of the old League following the refusal of governments to abandon military forces as a potential instrument of policy, Paul-Boncour said that while UN contemplated an international organization of two million troops, a major power could raise four million unless disarmament were adopted.

The scene of intensive wrangling throughout its existence, the League breathed hard to the end, the Argentine delegation walking out upon its failure to obtain one of the last vice presidencies. Following consultations with other delegations and its own government, however, the Argentines returned.

WORLD CATTLE:

Preliminary reports for 1946 indicate that cattle numbers have decreased in North America and Europe, and increased in the Soviet Union since the beginning of 1945, the department of agriculture said.

The drop in North American cattle numbers is placed at two million, and the European decrease at six million. The increase in the Soviet Union is estimated at three and seven-tenths million. Little net change in the cattle population is reported elsewhere in the world.

HUNTER COLLEGE, The Bronx, N. Y.—Fifteen minutes ago the session of the security council of the United Nations adjourned and the attractive room which it is hard to believe was ever the gymnasium of Hunter college in the northern latitudes of New York City, is almost empty.

Since 11 o'clock the council members have been at their places at the curving table on the platform and every seat in the "audience" has been filled. The first 40 persons to line up at the gates are given seats. Tickets are issued only to those with some plausible reason to hold them. Some of the "visitors" remain and the marine guards are still on duty while other attendants clear away the various impediments before each place from the Russian ambassador's at one end to the Polish delegate's at the other.

After each day's performance the actors and the audience in this play are soon far from the brown and rose room of Hunter college, but for a long time, there are scores of busy men and women.

They are the people whose business it is to report this drama and build up opinion strong enough to discourage war. I refer to the members of the press, radio, the news-reels, the photographers, the sound-recorders. As I sit here they are gathering up their notes and memoranda, making quick contacts before delegates get away, pulling off head-sets, packing up cameras and tripods—and then perhaps pausing for refreshments in the "press lounge" especially installed in the basement of the gymnasium where their quarters are located.

UN Recognizes

Popular Interest

I have covered many international gatherings from the peace conference of Paris after World War I and none has given as much proportional attention to providing the necessary facilities for bringing the proceedings to the citizens of the world as this gathering at Hunter college.

Of course the council is relatively small and the army of reporters seems large in comparison to its scant 11 members, the secretary and assistant secretary general and the various advisors. The fact that the principals are so few increases the informality and the feeling of intimacy which seems to exist between the organization and the group of men and women who observe, record and report its doings.

Along the wall, opposite the council table at gallery level are a row of glass windows, the booths of the American radio networks, the BBC, and some separate stations. In a glassed-in-corner behind and to the left of the table are radio engineers and the equipment which records all the spoken words of the members. At any moment a speaker may be cut in and heard by listeners on any of the networks. At special points of vantage there are places for taking movie and still photographs. Whenever some dramatic moment arises you can see the Klieg lights slowly rise (and the busiest delegate is likely to straighten his tie, take off or put on his glasses) while the moving picture cameras grind.

Most of the speaking by the delegates, except when formal statements are read, is done from notes or completely ad lib and since all of the members speak either English or French the pauses for interpreting are short—either into French or English except when Ambassador Gromyko speaks in Russian. These words must be interpreted into both French and English and Gromyko doesn't hesitate to stop the interpreter and give his own English translation if he doesn't like the interpreter's choice of words. He could speak in English himself if he wanted to but probably wants the Russian for the record for home consumption.

Eventually when the permanent meeting place is established the system employed at Nuernberg will be used—earphones and simultaneous translation. This slows down the speakers but is much more rapid in the long run making repetition of an entire speech unnecessary sometimes twice or sometimes three times, as at San Francisco. But here at Hunter the business moves with a briskness that adds to the informality.

May Leave Reds On Political Limb

I never realized before that New York was NOT an "early" town.

When transportation is normal I can buy a New York newspaper in Washington on my way to work. On the other hand, in New York at the same hour (7:30) I found there were no newsstands open between the club where I stayed on 57th street to the subway station, nor in the subway where I got on, or where I got off, 40 minutes later.

Of course the crowds were pouring southward in the subway at that hour and they had been able to buy their papers when they got on, but in the normally busy area of the 50's the natives were not abroad in sufficient numbers at 7:30 to justify the presence of news vendors.

On the streets at the end of my run which is about 200th street (Kingsbridge station in the Bronx) the stands were open and most of the people who bumped against me as I reached for the staid Times and the Republican Herald Tribune, were buying the left-wing PM.

PM can't be called Communist since Editor Ingersoll is not a Communist but while he was off to the wars it heaved pretty close to the party line. The Daily Worker, however, is considered to express the official "wishes" of the Communist party and, according to most of the other newspapers these "wishes" come direct from the Kremlin—or maybe next door.

Heretofore the Communists have supported the American Labor party which is a New York party which in general embraced Democratic, New Deal, CIO supporters and had the co-operation of the Communists. Now the war is on between the CIO and the Communists and ructions are expected to arise in any corner.

Nevertheless, when the Russian delegate walked out of the United Nations security council meeting, it was said that until he walked back the American Labor-CIO planning board had decided to withhold support of Senator Mead, Democratic possibility in the race for the New York state governorship. This move was looked upon by conservative papers like the SUN as if the American Labor party were willing to plan its political strategy according to the attitude of Moscow toward the United Nations. Since in the council meeting when the Iran affair came up Secretary of State Byrnes led the fight against the Russian stand. The fact that he later offered the resolution which labeled the Russian reply as satisfactory and postponed the discussion of Iran in which Ambassador Gromyko had refused to take part beyond the time that the Russians themselves had demanded, the left wingers went to bed satisfied.

However critics of the American Labor party and the CIO still insist that they are now on record as having tried to line up American votes to please a foreign power. What the repercussions of this little flurry will be remain to be seen. If this is supposed to be an evidence of left-wing displeasure over the Democratic administration's foreign policy and subsequent events have not removed that displeasure, the question remains, where will the left wingers go?

John Lewis, whose love for the Democrats evaporated when he couldn't collect on his generous donation to the Roosevelt campaign fund, is expected to become a hundred per cent Republican when it comes to the next presidential election.

It would take a great stretch of the imagination, however, to visualize either the communist appendage of CIO, of the non-Communist CIO-PAC head, Sydney Hillman, embracing the elephant. It has already been demonstrated that the Communists are becoming anything but an asset to the Democratic party and Hillman probably would be glad to get rid of them.

Where the Communists will go is a question. It is not likely that they and such fellow travelers are willing to travel with them would essay a third party. But politicians hereabouts believe that they will be able to shift their weight about in such a manner as to upset more than one state and congressional political apple-cart.

Ed'spread Can Be Cut Without Waste

YOU will need 11½ yards of 36-inch material. Cut the center parts of the spread and pillow cover first; then the 18-inch side pieces for the pillow cover; then all the 10-inch strips. This leaves a long strip for the ruffles.

These directions are from SEWING BOOK 1 which contain 32 pages packed with useful information of this sort. It shows how to make finishes such as the welled seams sketched here. It clears up the mysteries of draping a dressing table the way decorators do it, and gives tips on curtains, slip covers and many other things you can make. Kidneys Must Work Well—

For You To Feel Well
24 hours every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood. If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove waste plus fluid, excess acids and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be a better understanding of why the whole system is upset when kidneys fail to function properly. Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer nagging backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains, getting up at night, swelling. Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended the world over. Doan's stimulates the function of the kidneys and helps them to flush out poisons and waste from the blood. They contain nothing harmful. Get Doan's today. Use with confidence. At all drug stores.

Administration housing experts want to hold up construction on non-essential stores, office buildings, factories, roadhouses and amusement projects until veterans homes are taken care of. There'll be screams of anguish over that. Try to get anybody to admit that his shop, his theatre or his doghouse is not essential.

The Kurds again making trouble in the middle east mustn't be confused with the kind Little Miss Muffet ate . . . or drank. That kind of curd is the thick part of the milk as distinguished from the watery part, and the Kurds with a "K" are distinguishable from either by the fact that they are "belligerent Moslem nomads."

The Lone Star State
Motto: Friendship
Flower: Bluebonnet

By EDWARD EMERINE
WNU Washington Correspondent.
WNU Features

"NO NATIVE has ever seen all of Texas — and no visitor ever will."

A huge, incredibly rich piece of real estate, with more cattle than human beings, and ranches described in square miles rather than acres!

Texas derives its name from "tejas," meaning friend or ally. Six great flags have flown over the state — Spanish, French, Mexican, Republic of Texas, Confederate and United States. But no one nation built Texas, or developed it. It was built by the Texans, a breed apart. They conquered it, and they made it over to suit their taste. They did it with rifles, six-shooters and bowie and corn and cotton in between. No one can predict when the "norther," a sharp cold wind, will strike any part of the state. Nearly a million acres are irrigated, and such cities as San Antonio, Houston, Galveston and El Paso get their water from artesian wells. There are 230 kinds of fish in lakes and streams, and 4,000 different wild flowers blossom within its borders.

Between the twisted salt cedars of the Gulf coast and the desert reaches of ocotillo and sotol in the west, there are 12 million acres of commercial forests, 550 kinds of grasses and 100 varieties of cactus. There are alligators on the coast, horned toads in the desert, and rattlesnakes wherever you find them. Once 60 million buffalo grazed in Texas, and it still knows the armadillo, chaparral bird and road-runner.

Here is a land of forest and desert, of fertile fields and jagged mountains, of rolling prairies, sleepy rivers and wide Gulf beaches. And here Texans created Houston with its 50-mile ship channel to the Gulf; San Antonio's ancient houses with yard-thick adobe walls — and skyscrapers; Dallas, the city of the north; Fort Worth, the cow town; Austin, the capital; Galveston, picturesque port and beach; El Paso, with American energy and Mexican color. It is suitable that there should be added such as Randolph field, "the West Point of the air corps," and Fort Sam Houston, the army's largest post. Oil wells have brought scores of El Dorados to the state, and Texas natural gas is piped to Colorado, Kansas, Wyoming, Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri, Illinois. If the gas ever runs out, plenty of coal remains.

Quotations like these tell the story of Texas: "Who'll go with old Ben Milam to San Antonio?" "I'm going to Texas — to fight for my rights," a Tennessean on his way to join Texas' War for Independence. "The Americans were so stubborn that not one of them would surrender," Gen. Santa Anna. "Ride like Mexicans, shoot like Tennesseans, and fight like the devil," the Texas Rangers. "Thermoplae had its messenger of defeat; the Alamo had none," inscription. "Remember the Alamo! Remember Goliad!" Sam Houston. "The Republic of Texas is no more," Anson Jones.

The shrine of Texas is the Alamo where 182 men, including Travis, Crockett, Bowie and Bonham, refused to escape or surrender. At Goliad, a Texas force under Fannin surrendered and was massacred. At San Jacinto, the furious Texans, under Sam Houston, in 20 minutes shattered Santa Anna's army and won independence for Texas.

Texas, still in cowboy boots, has its great trading centers and exports, its flying fields and oil derricks, its mines and fields, and cattle ranges. It retains its old flavor, but combines the glories of its past with new energies and new horizons. In agriculture, industry, culture and recreation, the Texas tradition of "biggest and best" is making new strides.

There is only one Texas—it is the expansive, friendly, hospitable and progressive Texas we all know.

"Grapefruit Bowl," Lower Rio Grande, near McAllen, Texas

Pecos Bill, Super-Cowboy

It is natural that the Texas cowboy, who has known the feeling of the earth and sky while tending the herds during round-ups and drives, should create a mythical super-cowboy to talk about around the chuck wagon and the bunkhouse. That's how Pecos Bill came into existence. There are various accounts of Pecos Bill's birth, but any puncher will declare with a great deal of pride that the hero was born in Texas. While his family was moving west, Bill dropped out of the wagon. Since there were 17 or 18 other children in the wagon, Bill's ma and pa didn't miss him for two or three days. Then it was too late to turn around and go back to look for him.

But Bill didn't starve. The coyotes — so goes the legend — "took him up and raised him." As he grew, he became so terrific that whenever the rattlesnakes heard him coming they hid in the cactus because his bite might poison them. Feeling that he needed a few pets around his shack, he invented centipedes and tarantulas. He used mountain lions for saddle horses.

Taking up a bet, Pecos Bill mounted an Oklahoma cyclone and traveled across three states. Mountains were leveled and forests uprooted. From this jaunt there emerged the treeless Texas Panhandle. Bill was "thrown" when the cyclone "rained out from under him."

WILL the coming Louis-Conn fight set a new record for gate receipts? There are more than two or three close to the fight game who don't think so. It will be a sellout, but the idea is that the Yankee Stadium can't match either Soldier Field, Chicago, or the Sesquicentennial in Philadelphia.

Billy Conn

Here's the low down from a gate receipts authority: "Mike Jacobs will charge $100 for ringside seats. He will scale the crowd down from that. I believe you will find the attendance somewhere between 90,000 and 100,000. My guess would be around $2,500,000, slightly below the second Tunney-Dempsey meeting in Chicago which drew $2,650,000." Jacobs boasts that he will gross three million dollars on this fight.

This sent us prowling into the record book to check the leading money records of the game. Here they are:

Tunney-Dempsey, Chicago, 1927—$2,650,000.
Dempsey-Tunney, Philadelphia, 1926—$1,895,723.
Dempsey-Carpentier, Jersey City, 1921—$1,626,580.
Dempsey-Sharkey, New York, 1927—$1,083,529.
Dempsey-Firpo, New York, 1923—$1,082,590.
Louis-Baer, New York, 1935—$948,352.
Louis-Schmeling, New York, 1938—$940,096.
Tunney-Heaney, New York, 1928—$691,014.

The first Louis-Conn fight in New York, 1941, drew only $451,743. There are two outstanding points in this financial roundup. The first is that Jack Dempsey figured in all the shows over $1,000,000, five altogether. These five Dempsey fights hauled in $8,338,422.

Dempsey altogether drew in something like $10,000,000 at the gate, far beyond any one else. It will also be noted that Dempsey drew huge amounts against four different opponents—Tunney, Carpentier, Sharkey and Firpo. Gene Tunney, with Dempsey out of the picture fell from $2,650,000 and $1,895,723 to $691,014 against Tom Heaney.

The Louis Gate Record

Joe Louis so far has been in 57 fights, but Joe has yet to know a million dollar gate. Here are his five best financial contests:

Louis-Baer, New York, 1935—$948,352.
Louis-Schmeling, New York, 1938—$940,096.
Louis-Braddock, Chicago, 1937—$640,420.
Louis-Nova, New York, 1941—$583,821.
Louis-Schmeling, New York, 1936—$547,372.

The five top Louis fights are nearly five million dollars below the Dempsey count for the same number of contests. The Conn engagement will be the first time the Bomber moves into the million-dollar row, and this time it is almost certain to be better than the $2,000,000 row. Whether it will reach $3,000,000 is another guess.

So far Louis has drawn in approximately $5,000,000 at the gate; 37 per cent of this amount is about $1,850,000. Even if split evenly with his managers this should have left Joe over $900,000.

Taxes have taken a terrific toll from this amount, but even so one begins to wonder how Louis could be in the red, so far as back debts go, for over $200,000 to the government and Mike Jacobs.

If you owe $200,000 today and make $2,000,000, your net will be about $180,000, and this still leaves you $20,000 shy. The best Louis can hope to collect in the Conn fight will be something about $900,000 and $1,000,000, so far as gate receipts go. What he will get from motion pictures and television is still a guess. But when they stop lopping off 90 or 92 per cent, the residue won't be any too ponderous to carry around.

Dempsey and Tunney had better breaks. Tunney knocked over $900,000 or more for himself in 1927 at Chicago, but the income tax at that time was light—approximately 10 or 12 per cent. Both Dempsey and Tunney kept most of what they made, although the Mauler split 50-50 with Jack Kearns before they said "farewell forever."

Those days now belong with the dodo and the great auk. Maybe you can make it today, but if you do—try to keep it.

Pennant Race Odds

What should the proper and correct odds be on the two pennant races just ahead? A few dozen bookmakers gave me this:

"We've made the Cardinals even money against the rest of the National league."

"The American league looks about as wide open as the Kentucky Derby. The Yankees and the Red Sox should be slightly favored. We rate them the better balanced teams."

VETERANS HONORED

The home of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Grube was the setting for a family reunion Easter Sunday honoring several returned veterans, including Captain Otto Schawe, Chaplain Martin and Edgar Joe Schawe, and Freddie Grube. Rev. Schawe has been in the service five years, and spent eleven months in New Guinea.

Dinner consisting of barbecue salads, cake and coffee, was served to the following friends and relatives: Captain and Mrs. Otto Schawe and children, Mary Jeanne and David, of Salinas, Calif.; Rev. and Mrs. M. J. Lorfing and family of Hondo; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilson of Belton; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Schawe and daughter, Imogene, and sons Martin and Edgar Joe, of Knippa; Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Grube of Somerset; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Breiter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gruff and family, Clarence Neuma and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Van Fleet, and Otto Grube of Hondo; Mrs. Doris Carpenter and baby of D'Hanis, Mrs. Beatrice Davis of Uvalde, Jimmy Bradley of San Antonio, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Grube.

Cool Toned Shades
By Jane Rogers

IT'S summer bungalow time and you're probably in the midst of decorating your cottage whether it be in the country or at the seashore.

We've one suggestion to make—hang the new darker toned shades, larkspur blue or springleaf green, in every room. These two tones have the happy faculty of diffusing light and keeping out the glare of the summer sun.

They're particularly important for bedrooms if you want your family to awaken refreshed and rested and in an amiable mood.

Don't forget to hang these muted tone cloth shades in the kitchen—you'll find it a far more comfortable place to work in.

● If you intend staying where you are—change to these summer shades and you'll transform your whole summer setting and keep your life on a grand even keel.

Now is the time to subscribe.

GIVE OR ELSE

One of the most difficult jobs is to show how all of us, whether we work in factory, field or office—whether we are presidents of corporations or unknown hands on a production line—have almost a life and death interest in who bosses basic industries. The kind of government we live under is determined by the answer to this question. If government owns and runs the industry, it will eventually own and run the people. Economic security will hinge on the brand of the individual's politics.

Amid the controversy over the resignation of Interior Secretary Ickes, a news commentator noted that Ickes was not in the good graces of Administration political leaders because he had not "played ball" in the collection of campaign contributions from the employees in his department. For this he should be commended. It was reported that "other departments" "kicked in" $20,000. to $30,000.

Here is a minute sample of what government in business would mean. Suppose the leaders of the Democratic or Republican party could go to five hundred thousand coal miners, a couple of million transportation employees, hundreds of thousands in the oil industry, and other millions in other basic industries, and say, "give, or else," which would be done under government ownership. It would simply mean that the party in power would stay there, entrenching itself and growing more corrupt and ruthless as the years went by. Utter, political oppression would come to the people in the end.

Such tragedy must not happen in this country. Our people must remain independent to express their opinions at election time. To do that, they must keep American industry free of political domination, not for its sake, but for their own.

MRS. BERRY BURIED AT YANCEY

Mrs. Opal Lee Berry, 33, passed away April 17, 1946, at the Bell Hospital in Pearsall. Funeral services were held from the Horger Funeral Home here and interment was made at Yancey Friday morning. Pallbearers were George Heilgman, Nick Wilson, Sam Wilson, J. P. Nixon, J. D. Baker and Ned Curtis.

Mrs. Berry was born February 8, 1913, in Oklahoma and at an early age united with the Baptist Church in Broken Arrow, Okla., and lived a Christian life. She was married to Thell Berry on January 18, 1933. Pearsall had been her home for the past two months.

She is survived by her husband, Thell Berry, and two children, Nealy Othella Berry, aged 12, and Suellen, aged 4.

What is your GUESS? on our profits...

SOMETIMES, although an idea is wrong, it does no harm. Like the idea that a square jaw is the sign of will power. That winters aren't as severe as they used to be, or that red hair denotes quick temper.

But there are other wrong ideas, which are definitely harmful to public confidence in and understanding of industry. One such idea is the current "guessing" about profits made by large business organizations.

Many people are apt to grossly exaggerate the money made by business. So Opinion Research Corporation (an independent organization) made a survey to learn just what the public thinks about profits. Compare these guesses and yours with national Harvester profit figures given below.

In this survey, the average of the guesses by the public of the war-time profits made by industry was... thirty per cent (30%).

But in the four war years of 1942, 1943, 1944, and 1945, the profits of International Harvester Company averaged only... 4.9% on sales. Less than one sixth of what the general public "guessed" for all industry.

For this period, the year by year per cent of profits on sales was: 1942—7.34, 1943—5.59, 1944—3.95, 1945—3.93.

In the four peace years of 1938, 1939, 1940, and 1941, the profits of International Harvester Company averaged... 7.17%. This is well under half of what the public "guessed" for all industry.

The survey indicates the public knows that in our economy profits are indispensable. And the majority regard 10% as a fair rate of profit in normal times. Many large businesses, including ourselves, would consider it a banner year if we could reach this figure. Our average profit for the last ten years—four war and six peace—was 6.43%—more than a third less than what the public considers fair.

All these figures show that our profits are not high. As a matter of fact, the entire farm machinery industry is a low profit industry. In 1944, the Federal Trade Commission published a list of 76 industries ranked in order of their ratio of profits to sales. The farm machinery industry was 57th on the list.

What About Current I H Prices?

When the War ended and we planned our peace-time production, we had hoped to be able to serve our farmer customers at the same level which has held since 1942, regardless of war-time increases in costs of wages and materials up to that time. But recent developments have forced a change in our plans.

INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER

Wages and materials consume nearly all of every dollar Harvester takes in from sales. A Government board has recommended and the Company has agreed to pay a general wage increase of 18 cents per hour for Harvester factory employees. The Government has also allowed price increases on raw materials which we purchase in large quantities. Steel has had an average increase of 8.2%.

There has been no general increase in our prices since they were frozen by the Government early in 1942.

So our situation today is that what we BUY costs us 1946 prices. We will be paying average hourly wages 56% above 1941. For what we SELL we get only 1942 prices. This condition cannot long be met out of our present low rate of profit.

Future Prices on I H Products

It is plain that price relief will be needed to meet the increased wage and material costs which we must carry.

We regret this necessity. We prefer to lower prices, when possible, rather than raise them and we know our customers prefer to have us do that. We had hoped to be able to "hold the line," at least. But we do not see how we can avoid operating at a loss if our prices continue to remain at their present frozen levels. We will NOT "cut corners" on any of our products, because QUALITY IS THE FOUNDATION OF OUR BUSINESS.

Our customers can be certain that we will seek no more than a moderate profit, both because of our policies and because we have approximately 300 competitors fighting us vigorously for your business. Our request for price relief will be no more than is necessary to insure continued service to our customers, continued work for our employees, and a reasonable return for our stockholders.

D'HANIS BOY IN CHINA

One of the major tasks still confronting the American troops in China is the fulfillment of the commitments of the United States Government to assist the Chinese in removing future threats of Japanese economic and political penetration on the Asiatic mainland. The magnitude of this task may be seen from the figures which show that on 15 August 1945 at the time of surrender, there were approximately 2,061,000 Japanese military and civilians in China and the neighboring islands exclusive of Manchuria, to be processed for repatriation. As of 5 April 1946, 1,265,000 had already been repatriated.

At the end of the war on the 250-mile lone island of Formosa, called by the Chinese "Taiwan," there were approximately five hundred thousand Japanese, some of whom had resided there for more than thirty years. To expedite their removal from this island of a hundred thousand caves and tunnels, an American Repatriation Headquarters was set up at Taipei, for the purpose of assisting the Chinese in handling this unprecedented task. After careful planning which utilized Japanese civilian organizations, a constant flow of repatriates has been maintained since 26 December 1945 out of the bomb-battered ports of Kirun, Karenko and Takao.

Playing an important part in the American operations at Kirun, Formosa, is Staff Sergeant Bernard C. Zinsmeyer, D'Hanis, Texas, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Zinsmeyer of the same address. Educated at the St. Anthony school, D'Hanis, Texas, S. Sgt. Zinsmeyer was a bookkeeper for civil service section, Hondo Army Airfield, Hondo, Texas, before entering the Army. Called to active service on 28 October 1944, S/Sgt. Zinsmeyer came to Kunming, China, via the Hump on 6 July 1945 assigned as a clerk with Chinese Combat Command, Kunming, China.

AWARDED LEGION OF MERIT

HEADQUARTERS, EIGHTH AIR FORCE, OKINAWA—Award of the Legion of Merit to Colonel George B. Dany, 232 West Hollywood Avenue, San Antonio, Texas, has been announced at this advanced Army Air Force base. The medal was presented to Col. Dany at an impressive ceremony by Brigadier General Patrick W. Timberlake, Commanding General of Eighth Air Force.

The Legion of Merit was conferred upon Col. Dany for his services from November, 1942, through November, 1944, during which time he established and conducted the first all-navigation training station at Hondo Army Air Field, Texas, and later served as Commanding Officer of the Army Air Base at Selman Field, Monroe, La.

Graduating from the United States Military Academy at West Point in 1934, Col. Dany took flying training at Kelly and Randolph Field, Texas, completing that phase of his training in 1935. After a brief tour with the 19th Bomb Group at March Field, Calif., serving as a pilot, bombardier, and navigator, Col. Dany returned to Randolph Field as instructor and flight commander. In 1941 he established the navigation training school for the Central Flying Training Command at Kelly Field, going from there to set up the Navigational Training School at Hondo.

Col. Dany left the United States in August, 1945, to join the Eighth Air Force in Okinawa. At present he is Commanding Officer of the Eighth Air Force Area and Headquarters Commandant.

Mrs. Dany and her two daughters, Diane and Kathleen, and son, George, Jr., live at 232 W. Hollywood Ave., San Antonio.

WARNS AGAINST MALARIA

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, today issued a warning against the danger of malaria following the heavy rainfall in Texas, which usually occurs during the spring and early summer months.

"Malaria will remain a major public health problem as long as breeding places are accessible to the female Anopheles mosquito," Dr. Cox said. "Every householder should make sure that there are no tin cans, broken bottles, or other types of rubbish on his premises that will hold water and offer breeding places to this enemy of good health."

Dr. Cox pointed out that in our practice of mosquito control, we are sometimes like the man who locked the stable door after the horse was already stolen; we are content to wait until all our premises are swarming with mosquitoes before we bring ourselves into active warfare against these recognized agents of malaria transmission. Dr. Cox further stressed the importance of conserving the public health and preventing the spread of disease in our present crowded conditions, and he also emphasized the fact that malaria is one of the more debilitating diseases, often causing its victim to lose weeks or even months from his regular employment or from school attendance.

Said Dr. Cox: "The best cure for malaria is prevention. Make sure your premises are free from any stagnant waters, in which may breed the female Anopheles mosquito that transmits the disease."

QUESTIONS OF PRINCIPLE—NOT PRICES

When the government sets out to control prices, and supply and demand—the natural forces of the free market—it must reach ruthlessly into the lives of all the people. There can be nothing democratic about it. The United States is trying to straddle the fence. It is trying to control "inflation" painlessly for as many people as possible with a strong show of democratic justice, which may sound like good political strategy but which simply will not work. The corollary to price control is wage control. Under the government's fence-straddling policy it has not been expedient to control wages. Such a step is unpopular with too many people. On the other hand, the OPA is a splinter of European dictatorship. It rules prices by decree, it sends people to jail, its spies sift through the affairs of thousands of businesses—and the private citizen is effectively barred from seeking relief from its decisions in the regular courts. If OPA is continued, the principle it represents—government by unquestioned decree—must be broadened promptly. Wages too must be controlled, and strikes must be barred. The present half-and-half system—half free, half controlled, is leading to production demoralization.

In deciding the future of OPA, the first question to be answered is, What kind of a system of government do we want in this country? This is a question of principle, not prices. By comparison, prices are irrelevant. Today no one can talk about prices with any certainty. Inflation may continue its course regardless of the system of government we decide to follow. If the decision is in favor of traditional American government of checks and balances under which coercion by decree is prohibited, the OPA and the authoritarian principle it represents must be abandoned. If prices go through the roof during the readjustment to the free market, the country will have to grin and bear it with the knowledge that the path of freedom is sometimes hard, although in the end its rewards are worth the sacrifice—something that Americans have known since 1776. —Industrial News Review.

Household Hints

Do not hang feather pillows in the sun as it draws the natural oil out of the feathers, lessening their resiliency. Air them on a cloudy, windy day.

For snow-whiteness—add a slice of lemon to the water in which cauliflower is boiled.

If the shoulder lines of your favorite sweaters are beginning to droop, sew in shoulder pads. This will give the sweaters smart new lines.

Keep a coarse comb in the laundry to straighten and untangle washed fringes.

Add a little borax when making starch to give a gloss to articles when ironed. After starch is made, stir in a little cold water to prevent formation of "scum" on top.

Place a well equipped shoe shine kit where your family will see it and be tempted to use it to prolong the life of their shoes.

A good sprinkling space for dampening clothes can be made by placing a discarded piece of oil-cloth over the ironing board.

Your dinner napkins will last longer if you fold them in quarters at one ironing and in thirds at the next, thus alternating each time.

CONSTIPATION ENDED WITHOUT DRUGS

Millions Turn to Famous Cereal for Lasting Relief!

You, too, may get lasting relief, if you suffer from constipation due to lack of bulk in the diet. Do as millions do, eat a daily dish of crisp, delicious KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN, and drink plenty of water. Do this every day, and you may never have to take another laxative as long as you live!

ALL-BRAN'S magic works by providing gentle-acting bulk utilized in the colon to further normal, easy elimination. It's not a purgative. It's a highly nutritious regulating food.

More Nutritious than Whole Wheat!

Because ALL-BRAN is made of the vital outer layers of wheat, in which whole-wheat protective food elements are concentrated. One ounce provides over 1/3 your daily iron need—to help make good, red blood. Calcium and phosphorus—to help build bones and teeth. Whole-grain vitamins—to help guard against deficiencies. Protein—to help build body tissue essential for growth.

Eat ALL-BRAN every day. Get this delicious cereal at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg's of Battle Creek and Omaha.

NO PLAN FOR ARMY
WASHINGTON. — After the last war, we let our best officers leave the army, were content to make the army a refuge for hundreds of misfits who couldn't adjust themselves in other walks of life, and settled down to complete complacency regarding the armed forces.

Usually history repeats itself. After this war, however, there is a little less complacency regarding the future — thanks to Russia. But there is almost as much do-nothingness regarding the internal organization of the army.

President Truman has now demanded that we have a big peacetime conscript army. But aside from Secretary of War Patterson's healthy board for probing caste, no steps have been taken to reorganize the army's long out-dated system of promotions, its methods of selecting officers, and, perhaps most important of all, its system of eliminating misfits.

A thorough re-organization of the army might make it more enticing to good men and thereby eliminate conscription. Even Sen. Chan Gurney of South Dakota, most ardent conscription enthusiast, will admit that a volunteer army is more efficient than one composed of men who are forced to serve.

COULD USE HORSE MEAT

An important debate has been taking place among food experts inside the administration regarding the use of horse meat for feeding Europe.

Horse meat is a type of food which Americans know little about. Within Europe it is standard diet and certain countries, especially France and Belgium, have repeatedly informed the United States that they would like to buy more horse meat here. If two and a half billion pounds of horse meat could be sold to Europe — which is the amount available in the U. S. A. — it would take care of most of Europe's feeding problems and eliminate any need for U. S. A. rationing.

Such a program has been urged by UNRRA officials and also by some experts in the army and navy. However, the plan has run up against several snags, chiefly that of U. S. meat packers.

The big packers don't want the American public to get the idea that horse meat is processed in their plants. They fear that the suspicion would linger in the consumer's mind. However, Harry Reed, who does most of the meat procurement for UNRRA in the department of agriculture, leans toward the big meat packers and they never have wanted small state packers to get into the inter-state business.

HORSE MEAT FEEDS ZOOS

Another source of opposition is expected to come from the many horse lovers throughout the country who probably would claim that the United States was being denuded of horses.

Officials point out, however, that several hundred horses are slaughtered weekly all over the United States to feed the zoos of the nation. Furthermore, the United States today has a larger surplus of horses than ever before in history. Agriculture department estimates are that three million surplus horses are now on the ranges and farms of the country. The grain which they alone consume would go a long way toward feeding Europe.

Officials estimate that these three million surplus horses would supply a total of two and a half billion pounds of meat, also give fats for soap, together with hides to ease the scarcity of leather.

NOTE—While prices of almost everything tended upward during the war, the price of horses did not. Government buyers purchasing draft animals for UNRRA report that the country has thousands of four to six-year-old horses which have never been harnessed. Farmers haven't had time to break them in, would like to sell them if prices were right.

BUMPTIOUS GENERAL VAUGHN

Twelve years ago, famous Filipino Gen. Emilio Aguinaldo sent President Roosevelt a 9½-foot carved table of Philippine hardwood designed to serve as a cabinet table.

The other morning, however, Brig. Gen. Harry Vaughn, White House military aide, hurrying through the White House lobby, bumped his knee on a buffalo. Promptly the four carved buffalo heads came off.

CAPITAL CHAFF

Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach is secretly considering resigning from the cabinet, in order to again run for the senate.

Bernard Baruch is hopping mad at the state department for releasing its report on atomic energy before he, Baruch, could make his own investigation. Baruch has admitted privately that the state department report is an excellent one. However, it's not known as the "Baruch report"—which is important to Bernie.

Kathleen Norris Says:

Give It a Chance

Bell Syndicate.—WNU Features.

"Thousands of mothers-in-law have been happily established in thousands of homes for years, in every generation."

By KATHLEEN NORRIS

"SHE and her mother had such a swell time running the kids while I was away," writes Billy Williams, "that sometimes I think Sally would just as soon I hadn't come back! I like the old lady well enough, but gosh, I didn't think she was going to settle down and live with us!"

"My return is a disappointment to Margaret," writes an older soldier. "I see it—I've felt it from the hour of my return. I'm back in my old job, but not at my old pay; the firm has changed hands, nothing is as comfortable as it used to be. I'm slowed down in some way—tired in mind and soul as well as body, I guess. I hope we can work it out, but I know she's disappointed in me."

"My husband has come home a changed man," say scores of letters from young wives. "He wants to do crazy things—give up his job and go pioneer somewhere. He doesn't like the baby. He talks so bitterly. He's suspicious of everything I did while he was away."

"We don't seem to be the same people," many of the letters say sadly. "Perhaps we didn't know each other well enough when we went so gaily into that wartime marriage. I made new friends when he was away. He doesn't like them. We both hate divorce, but we can't see ourselves as ever being happy together again."

To all of these I want to say, "Oh, kids, kids—be patient! All this is part of the price humanity has to pay for the insanity of war. Don't add to the terrible sum total of the world's misery today the wreckage of what was so gay and beautiful a courting time, only a few years ago; don't make it all a lie, that lovely hour of promises and hope and confidence!"

Prayer and Patience.

Be patient. Wait. Give all these troubles time—time and silence and faith and prayer—and win through to the happiness of a real marriage.

Every man thinks he has to protest if his wife's mother lives in his house. This is as old a convention as marriage itself; many a young man otherwise good-natured and generous will stipulate in his engagement days "no mother-in-law!" And many a young man's mother will warn him, "Don't have Judy's mother with you, dear—it never works!"

Now, as a matter of fact, it often works. Thousands of mothers-in-law have been happily established in thousands of homes for years, in every generation. A home with two affectionate and understanding women in it works far better than a home with one; a thousand daily problems that are vexatious and bewildering to a woman alone, are solved simply and easily when Mother is there to sit with the sick child, finish the ironing, answer the telephone, keep the mending basket from bursting.

And who benefits from this? The husband, of course. He may not know it, but the single element that contributes most to his comfort at home may be that same mother-in-law.

As for the wistful husband who writes me that he is a "disappointment to Margaret," he need only wait—only be patient—and in the course of events entirely unforeseen now he will regain all his old security and happiness.

MOTHER-IN-LAW'S PLACE IN THE HOME

The war has given a new twist to the mother-in-law problem. When the husband went off to the army or navy, his mother-in-law often came into his home to help with the children. After a year or two, she became rather firmly established, as in the situation discussed today.

Billy Williams believes his wife and her mother resent his return. "They had such a swell time running the kids while I was away, that I sometimes think Sally would just as soon I hadn't come back!" writes this disillusioned veteran.

'Everyday Men and Women.'

After the highly emotional crises of parting and separation, after the fervid love-letters that came from a lonely man in camp to a lonely woman waiting at home, it is a shock to find each other only an everyday man and woman, with everyday problems of meals and plumbers' bills and dentist and crowded trains and the claims of unreasonable small children to meet. We would have to be supernatural in our heroism to resume normal living unscarred by the unnatural and tragic interruption of war.

But even though most of us have not enough character for that heroism, we can school ourselves to patience. Half the battle is won when a man and a woman realize the danger of this world crisis, realize that the restlessness and disillusionment they feel are not being experienced by themselves alone; realize that there is hardly a household in America that is not being obliged to rearrange all its ideas, abandon some of its dreams, settle down to a type of living that is entirely unlike the bright romantic future that the wartime letters predicted.

Give it time, all of you. You'll find the right house. The job will improve. The spoiled babies will begin to fall into line. Life will be full and good again for you both. It'll be all worth while.

For believe me, the chances are 99 to 1 that your happiness lies in each other, and in making a success of this experiment that seems so close to failure. Don't gamble on that hundredth chance!

Cancer Now No. 2 Killer

Every year 160,000 men and women die of cancer, while 600,000 are currently afflicted. And because one of every six deaths between the ages of 45 and 70 is due to cancer, an increasing rate of life expectancy throughout the nation is bringing more and more people into the danger group. Next to heart disease, cancer is the most common cause of death.

There are certain signs of cancer, as compiled by the American Cancer society, which, if detected, should be examined immediately by a doctor. These signs are: any sore that does not heal — particularly about the tongue, mouth or lips; painless lump or thickening, particularly in the breast, the lip or the tongue; irregular bleeding or discharge from the nipple or any natural body opening; progressive change in the color or size of a wart, mole or birthmark; persistent and unexplained indigestion after 35, persistent hoarseness, unexplained cough or pronounced difficulty in swallowing.

FEWER DINING ROOMS

Dining rooms are disappearing in American homes. Many families are throwing out the formal dining room furniture, and are using compact extension tables placed before window or wall. If more than three or four persons are to be served, the table can be moved to the center of the room. Side chairs from here and there are drawn up to the table when necessary. This plan gives a house a "second" living room, where there is room for a piano, radio and other pieces.

The Once Over

H.I. Phillips

A 1956 Baby Speaks

(Apologies to Thomas Hood)

I remember, I remember
The house where I was born—
The creaks and cracks through which

The sun peeped in each morn—
The ceilings low, the shaky walls,
The fragile, lumpy floors,
The windows loose and noisy and
The tissue-paper doors!

I remember, I remember
The cockeyed shape and size—
The modernistic gadgets and
Contraptions not so wise;
The buttons all around the house
Which drove my folks berserk—
(We should have seen at sight, I guess,
The darned things would not work).

A button moved the pantry out
And put a guest room in;
We threw a darling little switch
And back it came agin!
The dining room could be made small (Or medium or large
And pressing lever Number Eight
Would make it a garage!)

I remember, I remember
My father's sad, sad tale
Of how he was a veteran
And got the home by mail;
He ordered it by catalogue
And got a G.I. loan
For 10 times what the shack was worth
But, still, it was his own!

I remember, I remember
My father always said,
"I wish I'd bought a rugged home—
Old-fashioned like instead.
One thing," he said, "a veteran
Inside his hat should paste.
'When you go out to buy a home
Don't ever buy in haste.'"

Farewell to Beer

Beer is going to be so scarce this summer that they may serve it in punch glasses and demand a letter of introduction.

It will be almost as hard to get as during prohibition. And not any easier to drink.

In fact, some pessimists are predicting that by Fourth of July it will cost you 10 cents to hear "The Stein Song" from a juke box.

It's all because of the grain that must be saved and sent to relieve the hungry in Europe. Nobody can complain when a thirst is sacrificed to such a noble cause.

But it is going to ruin the Elks picnic, the City Hall outing, and the ball games between the single and married men at Mulligan's grove.

And we predict that it will do more to arouse the general public to a hatred of war than anything so far. A beer drinker is a beer drinker, and he has never thought he was asking too much from life.

It seems to us that life is going to seem extra drab for a while to the fellow who didn't care for the hard stuff and whose only plea was: "Put a head on it, Steve!"

Now that the government has placed all those restrictions on new building we await the black market bungalow and the tie-in sales plan which makes you also take a light-house, two cowsheds and a houseboat.

Readin', Writin' and Drivin'.

Automobile associations and educators are now starting a program in high school to teach young people how to drive an auto and particularly how to do so with a decent respect for others. "A main objective will be the development of a sportsmanlike attitude toward fellow drivers," it is announced. We hope no instructor will get into battle with another motorist en route to and from the classroom.

The idea is good, but there will be no change in the situation on American streets until somebody educates our police chiefs, traffic heads and cops as a whole so that they will give the pedestrian an occasional break.

With the Want Ads.

"I want the following books: 'Meet Mr. Hyphen,' 'The Dawn of a Tomorrow,' 'The Brick Moon,' 'Xit and Doe,' 'The Silver City'; will swap iris and other perennials. Mass. M918."—Yankee magazine.

Would you give us a couple of geraniums for "The Virginian" and "Quo Vadis"?

INCENTIVE

"Is she pretty?"
"No."
"Interesting?"
"Not especially."
"What're you marrying her for?"
"She comes of a family that has a spare room."

PRODUCTION LAGS STILL PROVING SERIOUS

WASHINGTON. — Mr. Truman and his reconverter, John Snyder, have been bragging that the "production of civilian goods and services" has reached the peak of all time. They want to prove by some unexplained general figures on income and dollar volume that production has been more than restored and reconversion accomplished.

Tain't so. There are tricks in it, to wit:

A foremost weekly index of actual production from a non-governmental source places our output for the week ending March 23 at 131 compared with 143 a year ago and about 127 for 1941. Miscellaneous car loadings are less than a year ago, as are steel, electric power and lumber production, but "other car loadings" and paperboard production are above a year ago.

Messrs. Truman and Snyder did not tabulate actual volume of production but only dollar volumes and income, and they made no allowances for price increases. Furthermore, they said only that "civilian" production was at all-time peak. There is no way of telling how much of the above-cited production is still army, navy and marine, but a portion must be. So the discrepancy is somewhat greater than the figures indicate.

J. S. Snyder

MANY ITEMS STILL ON "HARD TO GET LIST"

Producers themselves tell me the situation is bad. Ford publicly closed his plant for a week the very day the President spoke, because he could not keep enough steel on hand to warrant continuous operations. Every producer has that same trouble in one way or another. Manufacturers cannot get little things. An air conditioning maker finds his particular kind of steel for certain parts difficult to obtain because the steel companies will not manufacture much of it, saying they lose $15 a ton on it because of the OPA ceiling. The steel companies are producing other more profitable lines. Then the air conditioning man finds for a time he cannot get motors, finds a shortage of bearings due to strikes, cannot get production of a special copper bolt which is essential. His production line operates off again, on again, off again.

As far as "civilian services" are concerned, there are not any restored around here. Cleaners require three to six weeks to clean a suit, shirtmakers and many other lines inform their customers flatly: "We are not taking any more orders." They will not even consider delivery months hence. Parts for auto repairs are unavailable throughout the United States in some vital cases. A tailor took an order for a suit the first of last November and gave the first fitting at the end of March — five months later. He will not promise the suit by summer. Some outfitters are already stopping orders for summer suits — imagine it, next summer's suits. Meat supplies in Washington are getting bad again, only inferior grades of a few lines having been available the past few weeks.

There are no autos, coal, refrigerators, nylons and only a few radios. A considerable (say 10 to 15 per cent) improvement in sales stocks can be noted in many lines, and a bare beginning toward restoration is noticeable. The experience of the average citizen in these parts will strictly deny, however, any claim that production has been restored in "civilian services."

Now there has been a great acceleration in dollar volume of production in such lines as liquor (but not good liquor), department store sales and some particular food products, and these no doubt caused Mr. Snyder's figures to swell to the conclusions he induced the President to make from them.

But if you figure a 25 to 50 per cent increase in such items (I have noticed in my purchases price increases as high as 400 per cent) even the visible results of greater production in restricted lines do not loom formidably when compared with the job of sizing the production bottleneck up to demand. As measured with demand, we cannot yet begin to speak of "production."

Mr. Truman has a faculty of making the sensational appear to be commonplace. His army day dictum was a re-hash.

HOUSEHOLD MEMOS... by Lynn Chambers

Salad Sunshine—Carrots, Orange and Pineapple
(See Recipe Below)

Springtime Salads

With warm weather already here, and warmer breezes just around the corner, what family's interest doesn't turn to cool, lovely salads? The thought of jewel-green vegetables resting like gems on lighter green leaves of lettuce and endive, or brilliantly sparkling fruits on the dark green of watercress or frilly leaves of garden lettuce are certain remedies for getting rid of sweltering heat waves.

I know of some families who make salads the main ingredient of the menus during the really warm weather. Not enough protein, did I hear you say? Oh, but yes, for you can put enough meat, fish and cheese into the salads to give them that "stick-to-the-ribs" quality. Keep your salads crisp and fresh-looking. Wash the lettuce as thoroughly as you can, letting the cold water trickle on every leaf. Keep your salads as pretty as picture plates. Even a tossed salad which is sort of thrown together can be lovely, as long as you don't fuss with it until it looks weary.

Mold them, too, for a change, using fruits or vegetables or both, for pretty molds are again reaching the markets. Unflavored gelatin can be used with tomato juice and fruit juices if you want to have a bit of color on the salad plate.

A salad that looks like a sunburst itself is this one with tiny wedges of pineapple and carrot curls:

Sunshine Salad.

(Serves 6)

- 1 envelope plain unflavored gelatin
- 1 cup cold water
- 1 cup hot pineapple syrup, drained from can
- 1/2 cup orange juice
- 1/4 cup mild vinegar
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup grated raw carrots
- 1 cup orange segments, cut small
- 1 1/2 cups canned pineapple, cut into small pieces

Soften gelatin in cold water and dissolve in hot pineapple syrup. Add orange juice, vinegar and salt. Cool, and when mixture begins to thicken, fold in carrots, orange and pineapple. Turn into a mold that has been rinsed out in cold water and chill. When firm, unmold onto greens and serve with mayonnaise.

If fresh pineapple is used, cook the fruit a few minutes. The acid of fresh pineapple prevents gelatin from stiffening.

To make this salad as pleasing as it appears in the photograph, serve the salad on greens and fill the center with carrot curls. These latter are made by cutting the carrots in paper thin slices (try a potato peeler), wrap tightly around the finger and chill in ice water. If

Lynn Says:

Watch Those Bread Crumbs: Although rationing is over, we are still being called upon to conserve vital foods. This time it is the breadbox which is under strict observation.

Don't throw away those dry crusts of bread. Let them accumulate in a paper bag until you have enough to put through a meat grinder. These will be very fine and tasty to use for bread-ing.

Leftover bread crumbs, seasoned well, may be used as topping for casseroles.

Eat rye, whole wheat or bran bread when white bread is not available. Don't throw away a slice.

- Rice and Eggs Baked in Cheese Sauce
- Raw Spinach and Carrot Salad
- Bran Muffins Asparagus

- Beverage

you place the carrots close together in a glass of ice water, they will not come apart or need toothpicks to hold them together.

If you're getting into the habit of serving something pretty but simple for Sunday night suppers—which, by the way is a good idea for saving yourself work—try this salmon salad which is a meal in itself:

Buffet Salmon Salad.

(Serves 8 to 10)

- 1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin
- 1/4 cup cold water
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon prepared mustard
- 1/2 cup vinegar
- 2 egg yolks, beaten
- 1 tablespoon prepared horseradish
- 1 pound salmon, cooked and flaked
- 1 cup chopped celery
- 1/2 cup heavy cream, whipped
- Olives, sliced
- Pimiento strips
- Lettuce or watercress

Soften gelatin in cold water. Mix sugar, salt and mustard thoroughly. Combine vinegar and egg yolks in double boiler.

Cook until thick, stirring constantly. Remove from heat, add gelatin and stir until dissolved. Add horseradish. Chill until mixture begins to thicken. Add salmon and celery; fold in cream. Place olive slices and strips of pimiento on bottom of an oiled fish or loaf mold. Turn mixture into mold. Chill until firm. Unmold onto platter and garnish with watercress.

Note: Smoked salmon, trout, sturgeon or shrimp may be used in the above recipe in place of salmon.

Two very pretty salads which might be served as tidings of spring are these:

Strawberry Cheese Salad.

(Serves 6 to 8)

- 1 pint strawberries
 - 2 tablespoons sugar
 - 2 teaspoons lemon juice
 - 4 three-ounce cakes cream cheese
 - 1/2 cup whipping cream
- Wash and stem berries. Crush with sugar and lemon juice. Mix small portion at a time with cream cheese until well blended. Fold in whipped cream. Place in freezing tray and freeze.

Ham and Tongue Slaw.

(Serves 6 to 8)

- 1 cup cooked ham, in strips
 - 6-ounce can tongue, cut in strips
 - 1 small onion, minced
 - 4 cups cabbage, shredded fine
 - 1 egg white
 - 3/4 cup mayonnaise
- Mix ham, tongue, onion and cabbage and chill. Beat egg white, fold in mayonnaise and mix with cabbage, etc. Serve from salad bowl.

Here is a good salad dressing which is tart and light. You will like it for all types of fruit salads:

Fruit Salad Dressing.

- 1/4 cup sugar
- 1 tablespoon cornstarch
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup pineapple juice
- Juice of 1 lemon
- Juice of 1 orange
- 2 beaten eggs
- 1 cup whipping cream

Mix sugar, cornstarch and salt. Mix fruit juices and add to dry mixture. Cook in top of double boiler for 20 minutes. Remove from range and add well-beaten egg yolks. Let cook for 5 minutes longer, then let cool. Fold in beaten egg whites. This may be placed in a jar and refrigerated until used. Before using, add whipped cream.

Star Dust

STAGE-SCREEN-RADIO

By VIRGINIA VALE.

HAVE you ever wondered how it happened that so many movie stars were accomplished musicians? Some are, of course. But—well, at Warner Bros. there's a music school which teaches stars to "finger," but not to play. Recording artists, off stage, supply the music. Errol Flynn learned to look like a guitar player for "San Antonio"; Victor Francen fakes a piano solo for "The Beast with Five Fingers." And John Garfield turns concert violinist for "Humoresque." Of course many a star has seemed to sing while someone else really did it.

When Jane Withers was suggested for the dramatic leading lady's role in "Danger Street," Producers Pine and Thomas said, "But she's too small isn't she?" Then in came Jane, who's 20 now, and stands 5 feet 7 in her stocking feet. She was taller than the producers, a grown-up glamour girl. Then they began worrying for fear Robert Lowery, the leading man, would be too short.

Twelve of Hollywood's biggest, brawniest men appear in "Angel on My Shoulder," starring Paul Muni and Claude Rains. They're all more than 6 feet, 4 1/2 inches tall, weigh more than 250 pounds — and have photogenic muscles. And — Paul Muni fights them!

If the Hollywood bowl doesn't have a conflicting date, it will be the scene of the finals for Sammy Kaye's, "So You Want to Lead a Band" contest in June. Winners will be selected from the south, east, mid-west and west, and given transportation free.

It seems certain that Mary Martin will return to pictures before very long — though you never can be too sure about those things. She's appearing now on the stage in New York in "Lute Song," but is scheduled to report to Paramount in Hollywood in June, to begin work in the picture version of the Barrie play, "Alice-Sit-by-the-Fire." It'll be produced by Charles Brackett, producer of "The Lost Weekend."

Angela Lansbury's appearance opposite George Sanders in United Artists' "Bel Ami, or History of a Scoundrel" is interesting, because Metro's been building her up to stardom, and that studio rarely lends a top player to another company. But the role in the Loew-Lewin production promises to do so much for her that Metro let her do it. Thus the trio that made "The Picture of Dorian Gray" is reunited; Lewin wrote and directed that one, Sands and Miss Lansbury played the top roles. That title will be cut down, of course.

When Joan Crawford returned to the set of "Humoresque" after having won the Academy award for her "Mildred Pierce," the cast gave her a live Oscar — they'd swathed Oscar Leavitt in cellophane and stationed him at her dressing room door.

Agnes Moorhead's new radio program, "Calamity Jane," is likely to rate high in those popularity surveys. Of course, everyone has heard her in "Suspense." Now replacing the "Beulah" series Sundays on CBS, "Calamity Jane" offers a new story situation each week.

Martha Vickers of "The Time, the Place and the Girl," doesn't put all her hobbies in one basket. Two evenings a week she studies ballet, her spare time weekends are spent learning to fly, and for relaxation she plays an almost professional game of pool.

ODDS AND ENDS—Johnny Desmond, of the air's "Follies of '46," is the only musical member of his family; brothers and sisters, father and mother, can't sing a note. . . . Anne Baxter got the coveted role of "Sophie" in "The Razor's Edge" at 20th Century-Fox. . . . Visiting relatives have increased the number of children at the Annie Morgan dinner table to nine. . . . Jack Benny's godfather to Bob Cummings' baby. . . . Lilli Palmer, meeting her co-star, Gary Cooper, on the "Cloak and Dagger" set, described him as "tall, tan and terrific." . . . Diet and 36 holes of golf daily have removed 22 of the pounds Wayne Morris put on while in service.

Mrs. R. L. Mumme and daughter, Miss Alice Mumme, were appre- ciated callers at this office Tuesday.

Friends of Ben De Joirno will glad to learn that he is making a sur- if somewhat slow recovery from injuries received on April 5th when his horse fell with him. Mr. De Joirno received a broken shoulder and other body bruises that rendered him unconscious for some time.

Black Creek Farmer is Seriously Stabbed

Raymond Jungman, well-to-do farmer of the Black Creek community was seriously cut, early Tuesday, while riding in a car with a man he was trying to carry home. The old man seemed to be doped or drunken and just why he cut the man who was trying to help him was not known. His clothes were badly stained with the blood of the stabbed man and as he was carried off in his own car he seemed not to know what had happened, or where he was being carried. Mr. Jungman was rushed to a physician who dressed his wounds, which are not thought to be dangerous to his life.

Bader.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaw and children and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Fowler and daughter and Mrs. Sonny Jackel and son of San Antonio spent the week-end with Mrs. Adelia Heath.

J. A. Watson spent last week at Johnson City.

Mr. and Mrs. Gates and son from Hondo and Sydney Billings spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. J. A.
Watson. Mr. and Mrs. Gates left for Ohio to make their home.

Schneider-Rackley
Miss Dollie Schneider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schneider, of Natalia, and Mr. T. J. Rackley, son of Mr. Wade Rackley, of Devine,

Best War Memorial
I Know

There's an old war memorial in our town that I like to stop and look at now and then.

Back in 1865, folks gathered up all the bitter relics of battle and put them in a pile: cannon, battered rifles, broken swords, and rusty bayonets. Some of them from our side, some captured from the enemy.

They melted them down, and from this litter of war sprung a monument to friendship, tolerance and understanding—a promise that the bitterness and hatred were forgotten.

Since then, there've been all kinds of disagreements in this country, big and little. Prohibition was one—and there was plenty of bloodshed, misery and grief until the problem was resolved.

But from where I sit, it's part of the greatness of America that we remain a united country. We may disagree as individuals—but, accepting that difference of opinion, we can live in tolerance and mutual respect.

If You Had MY JOB

KEEPING HOUSE, helping take care of the family—you would realize that business girls are not the only ones who sometimes get Headache and Tired Aching Muscles. We home girls often work just as hard and have just as many Headaches, just as many Stomach Upsets and get just as Tired.

About a year ago, I first used
ALKA-SELTZER
I find that it eases my Aching Head, takes the kinks out of Tired, Aching Muscles and brings relief
when I have Acid Indigestion.

The family says I am a lot easier to live with since I have known about Alka-Seltzer.

Have you tried ALKA-SELT- ZER? If not, why don't you get a package today? Large package 40¢, Small package 30¢, also by the glass at Soda Fountains.
